Dear Mr. Carey,

In Sir Ian's absence your letter of the 3rd has come to me. There have, in fact, been a number of staff changes here recently which will be of special interest to you.

In the first place Sir Ian has himself, at short notice, been seconded by the B.B.C. for a year to act as Chief Staff Officer to the Minister of Defence. I have taken over from him during his absence, and now I am greatly looking forward to seeing you again when you are next in London. We have met briefly, when you came to lunch at Broadcasting House a year or so ago. I in turn have been succeeded by Robert McCall, who has just been appointed Assistant Director of External Broadcasting. I do not think that you will have previously met him.

As to the Monitoring Service, Wynne has not actually left the B.B.C., but he has been transferred from the Monitoring Service to another department. More recently Malcolm Frost has been appointed to take charge of the B.B.C.'s Transcription Service, as from June 1st. He is succeeded as Head of the Monitoring Service by R.D'A Marriott, who was, in fact, in charge of Monitoring within the B.B.C. in the early days of the war, before leaving to join the R.A.F. He will, of course, be making immediate contact with your staff at Caversham, and is, I know, looking forward to meeting you and your colleagues whenever opportunity offers, either in Washington or here.

It was extremely good of you to write as you did about Captain Wynne. It is encouraging for us to know that the liaison for which he was responsible was so satisfactory from your point of view.

Yours sincerely,

/s/

J.B. Clark
Director of External Broadcasting

Mr. G.G. Carey.
